

Don't Get Bald! Use Resinol Soap

Shampoo regularly with Resinol Soap. Work its rich, creamy lather well into your scalp with your finger tips. The soothing, healing Resinol balsams stop dandruff and itching, tend to invigorate the hair follicles and prevent loss of hair by keeping scalp healthy. Resinol Soap contains no harsh, injurious alkalis, as some soaps do, and leaves no unpleasant odor or stickiness in the hair. You will find a shampoo with Resinol Soap most satisfactory. Resinol Soap (50c) is sold by all druggists and dealers in toilet goods.—Advt.

GIANT MEET FOR SPEEDWAY.

If the weather is pleasant next Sunday, it is expected the largest crowd that ever attended an athletic meet in this country will see the American Liberty Day celebration at Sheepshead Bay Speedway for the benefit of the German, Austrian and Hungarian local charities and the Irish Relief Fund. There are to be 1,000 musicians, 20,000 exhibitors, and the games are sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union, the National Cycling Association of America, Federation of American Motorcyclists and American Automobile Association. The games begin at 9 A. M. and last until 6 P. M., but there will be many other features of interest. One is to be the largest American flag in the world, 20,000 feet, composed of 1,000 girls in uniforms.

ATHENA UNDERWEAR FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Athena underwear is truly fashioned and tailored to fit. It is designed not merely to approach, but to realize the outlines of a woman's form.

The shaping—the tailoring—is not confined to any one part. Note the shaped shoulders, the proper fullness of bust—the perfect conformation of legs.

The patented seat is the most remarkable advancement ever made in underwear designing; by a unique device the seat in Athena has been shaped to fit the figure snugly in any posture. There can be no gaping—no bulging.

If you will see Athena underwear, you will revise your ideas on the underwear subject.

Athena is sold only at Saks in New York

'GREAT DETRATOR,' BAKER CALLS T. R.; PRAISES WILSON

Colonel Heads Third Group in Party of Factions, Says Secretary of War.

COLUMBUS, O., June 1.—Secretary of War Baker, in what was regarded as an indication of the trend of the Democratic national platform, this afternoon gave his party a clean bill of health in past, present and prospective legislation and policies, in his keynote speech at the Ohio State Convention.

A united democracy, backed by four years of accomplishment culminating in the successful submarine negotiations, and faced by a foe divided into three factions—the tariff men, the forces of "the Great Detractor," and "peace at any price" men was viewed by Baker.

Baker emphasized the enactment of the Federal Reserve Act and the Rural Credit Bill. The unprecedented strength of national banks, the direct election of Senators, the Federal Trade Commission, already effected, and the prospective shipping and child labor laws were urged as Democratic accomplishments. Of President Wilson, he said:

"His has been the one sane and serene spirit which will redeem this age; and when the election comes it will be found that the people of America, whatever their sympathies in the European struggle, realize that the one indispensable exponent of the mind, the friendliness and the ideals of America in the remaking of the old order in the Old World is the finest type produced in this age by the new order in the New World—Woodrow Wilson."

The Republicans, Baker said, are hopelessly divided. Tariff will be the issue, if Senator Harding, scheduled to preside at Chicago, is correct. It will be the foreign policy with other Republicans, he argued.

"And then there is a third group, headed by the Great Detractor, who, shifting from position to position, selects at each time apparently whatever advantage point seems to offer an opportunity for making difficult the position of the President and Congress," he said. "The motive of this group seems to be critical rather than constructive, and guided by selfish ambition."

Of Mexico, Baker said:

"I cannot tell what the future may bring forth in this situation, but for my part I shall be most happy if the necessary security of our people can be obtained without the killing of another Mexican man, woman or child by American arms. And those who criticize the Mexican policy of the Administration must be prepared to accept the alternative and say that their choice is to make war upon these people."

Mr. Baker declared that intervention in Mexico had been urged by "some American owners of Mexican mines, some American proprietors of Mexican concessions, some Americans who looked with longing eyes on Mexico as Naboth's vineyard." Border disorders have been unfortunate, he explained, but the only alternative was "war upon these people, who have willed no act of aggression on us, to invade their country and to spend years in the occupation of foreign soil, and in tollless effort, expenditure of life and treasure, to impress an alien civilization on these people."

Included in Mr. Baker's comment on the European war was this:

"It is better for the people of the United States not to be involved in that vast destruction if it can be honorably avoided; and, second, it is better for humanity for the United States not to be involved, in order that, when the end of the struggle comes, there will be one great and persuasive power in friendly relations with all of the belligerents, inspired only by the desire of humanity and friendship, to aid as adviser and counselor in the terms of readjustment necessary."

MRS. COWLES WINS FEDERATION FIGHT FOR PRESIDENCY

California Candidate Receives 1,273 Votes to 433 for Mrs. Sneath of Ohio.

By an overwhelming majority Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles of Los Angeles, Cal., to-day was declared elected President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

The announcement was made at a business meeting of the Federation held in the grand ballroom of the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Cowles received 1,273 votes and her opponent, Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath of Tiffin, O., polled 433.

There was an enthusiastic demonstration in behalf of Mrs. Cowles when the vote was made known. Her election is considered a decided victory for the suffrage element in the Federation, because she made her race on a suffrage platform. Before Mrs. Cowles entered the contest Mrs. Sneath, who was First Vice President of the Federation, was considered the most probable successor of Mrs. Percy B. Pennybacker of Texas, the retiring President.

But when Mrs. Cowles let it be known that she stood for woman suffrage sentiment switched over to her. The balloting took place yesterday in the Seventh Regiment Armory, but the results were not announced until to-day.

Following is the full list of officers chosen:

President—Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, California.
First Vice-President—Miss Georgia A. Bacon, Massachusetts.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. Eugene Reilly, North Carolina.
Recording Secretary—Miss Carrie A. MacFarland, South Dakota.
Corresponding Secretary—Miss Frances D. Everett, Illinois.
Auditor—Mrs. W. F. Harper, Washington.

The treasurer of the Federation is to be named by the new Board of Directors, which is made up as follows: Alabama, Mrs. J. H. Haley; Arizona, Mrs. H. Morgan; Arkansas, Mrs. Joseph Frauenthal; California, Mrs. E. G. Deniston; Colorado, Mrs. W. R. Garrettson; Connecticut, Mrs. John C. Denison; Delaware, Mrs. A. R. Wauverton; District of Columbia, Mrs. A. Knight; Florida, Louise C. Knight; Georgia, Mrs. Z. I. Fitzpatrick; Idaho, Mrs. Charles Mueller; Illinois, Mrs. G. W. Plummer; Indiana, Mrs. H. Morgan; Iowa, Mrs. H. A. Miller; Kansas, Mrs. C. A. Hoffman; Kentucky, Mrs. James A. Leech; Louisiana, Mrs. John Shuttleworth; Maine, Mrs. C. A. Ashion; Nebraska, Mrs. W. Pedrick; Massachusetts, Mrs. George W. Perkins; Michigan, Mrs. R. H. Ashbaugh; Minnesota, Mrs. Thomas W. Win; Mississippi, Mrs. Edward McGehee; Missouri, Mrs. W. R. Chivvers; Montana, Mrs. W. I. Higgins; Nebraska, Mrs. A. G. Peterson; Nevada, Mrs. Charles Squires; New Hampshire, Mrs. F. J. Shepard; New Jersey, Mrs. C. W. Stockton; New Mexico, Mrs. G. W. Freyer; New York, Mrs. Mary Garrett Hay; North Carolina, Mrs. T. W. Sandler; North Dakota, Mrs. M. S. Nelson; Ohio, Anna B. Johnson; Oklahoma, Mrs. T. H. Hore; Oregon, Sarah A. Evans; Pennsylvania, Mrs. Blankenburg; Rhode Island, Mrs. H. T. Ashion; South Carolina, Mrs. J. W. Allen; South Dakota, Mrs. Z. E. Wilson; Tennessee, Mrs. G. W. Denny; Texas, Mrs. W. B. Sharp; Utah, Mrs. R. B. Porter; Vermont, Mrs. O. C. Ashion; Virginia, unfilled; Washington, Mrs. Solon Shedd; West Virginia, Mrs. R. L. Hutchinson; Wisconsin, Mrs. F. T. Bleach.

The Federation voted to-day to join the International Council of Women's Clubs. One reason for this move, it is said, was that a strong belief exists that Mrs. Pennybacker, the retiring president of the Federation can be elected president of the International Council. Another was to extend "hands across the sea" after the war and aid European women in reconstruction work.

An invitation to join the International Council was extended by Mrs. W. E. Sanford of Hamilton, Ontario, treasurer of the world-wide body, and Miss Julia Lathrop urged the women to take advantage of it.

Another session of the federation was held in the Hotel Astor this afternoon. The final meeting will take place in the Seventh Regiment Armory to-night, when addresses will be made on the subject "What Religion Has Done for the World." The new officers will be introduced at to-night's session.

BRAVE POLICEMAN BURIED.

Comrade Honor Schwarz, Who Was Killed in Fight With Armed Men.

Full honors of the Police Department were paid to-day to the memory of Policeman Schwarz, who was killed while seeking to overpower three armed men in a First Avenue cellar Monday. Commissioner Woodbury and members of the board of police officers, including Inspector John O'Brien and Captain Swiney and Mason. The pallbearers were six policemen. Two police trumpeters marched beside the hearse and sounded "march" over the grave in Mt. Olive Cemetery.

Police Chaplain Wade conducted the services at St. Anna Protestant Episcopal Church in Ninety-second Street near Columbus Avenue. The body of Schwarz lay in state in full uniform through the morning at his home, No. 722 Columbus Avenue, guarded by four teen youths of the Junior Police of the Fifth Street Station. Who had been active in helping Schwarz keep the neighborhood free from crime.

RECREATION PIER DELAY.

Late in Opening Because of Small Allowance for Repairs.

New York City's eight recreation piers, which usually open on Memorial Day, will not open this season until Saturday next. In explaining the reason for the short delay, Park Commissioner Cabot Ward said:

"It was hoped that the recreation piers could be opened for the season as has been the case in past years, on Decoration Day. However, because of the reduced allowance in the Dock Department for making necessary repairs to the piers, it has been impossible to complete the work in time."

It was learned to-day that the Dock Department had no watchmen on the piers in winter. This was one of the results of the campaign of economy inaugurated by the Mitchell Administration. In the absence of watchmen the upper sections of piers given over to recreation purposes in summer were broken into and much damage was done.

ALLIED BAZAAR

The Allied Bazaar, which opens at the Grand Central Palace next Saturday at 7:30 P. M., is DIFFERENT.

It is quite as much an Exposition as it is a Bazaar, and it is the biggest Bazaar ever held.

Another point of difference is that no visitor will be importuned to buy. You can visit this Bazaar just as you visit a good store; nobody will "hound" you for money.

Another point of difference is that

Goods Will be Reasonably Priced

in many cases below the usual retail figures. And the merchandise is new and desirable. Merchants and manufacturers have been very good to us.

UNUSUAL FEATURES

The official French Government exhibit, including an amazing collection of modern military machines and equipment, most of which was in actual use less than sixty days ago. Trinkets made by soldiers in the trenches, which will be for sale.

The Cabaret Tea Room
The Japanese Tea House
The Versailles Refreshment Garden
The Dancing Room, conducted by Maurice and Miss Walton.
The Art Gallery
The $100,000 Painting, "Salome"
The "American Authors' Booth"
The Great Grocery Store
Nearly Two Hundred Other Booths"

From these booths desirable merchandise of more than six hundred thousand dollars' actual value will be sold at fair and reasonable prices.

Some of the Unusual Things You Can Get

A trip around the world, all expenses paid.
Trips (for two) to Cuba, the Bahamas, Halifax, Bermuda, Japan, England and Peru.
A portrait painted by any one of a dozen of the most famous American artists.
"Week-Ends" in New York City, all expenses, including theatre and after-theatre suppers, paid.
An Automobile. (One will be disposed of every day of the Bazaar).
A Motor Cycle or Motor Boat.
A string of Pearls worth $8,000. Furs worth $1,000.
Hats and Gowns by famous Parisian and New York modistes.
An adventure in which you really live a thrilling romance (for the stout-hearted only).
All these wonderful features and amusements, all this valuable merchandise is for your pleasure and profit—but remember that every dollar you spend you are giving, as well as getting value for, for all the money goes to some form of War Relief Work.
